Whats the book about Well I humorously review how men basically became so inept at developing our relationships with others. I then introduce some of the things that men can do to improve themselves and their relationships. Through simple observations and through personal experience, it seemed to me that men in general have simply lost their way on the path to learning how to be a man and how to romance a woman. We have simply not known what to do, so we have done nothing and quite frankly this approach has not worked for us either. Enjoy the humor but dont miss the message -- it is time for men to continue on their evolutionary path. It is time for men to develop into Alpha Men understand communication, know that if your wife wants to dance then dance, romance your wife...
