Reviews

The book is great and fantastic. It is written in straightforward words and phrases rather than difficult to understand. You won't really feel monotony at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for regarding should you question me).

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Battle of Gettysburgh, and the Part Taken Therein by Vermont Troops The Paper, the substance of which is contained in the following pages, was prepared at the request of Officers of the Vermont Historical Society, and was read at the special meeting of that Society, in Brandon, Vt., January 26th, 1864. The position of its author, on Gen. Stannard s staff, gave him fair opportunities for observation of the matters related. He was the first man of his Brigade on the field, having been sent in advance to announce to the Division Commander the approach of the Brigade, and reaching Cemetery Hill before the close of the firing on Wednesday. His post on Thursday afternoon was by the side of his general, on the brow of Cemetery Hill, till it was exchanged for the extreme front on the left centre. The moonlit night of Thursday he spent in a search for a missing ammunition train, which took him over the whole ground occupied by our army. His duties called him to and fro upon various portions of the field during Thursday and Friday. He rode on Saturday over our lines from left to right, and over a portion of the enemy s position; and on a subsequent visit to Gettysburgh in November, 1863, he was enabled to verify his impressions by further study of the ground, and conference with many brave men who stood on those bloody hillsides during the great fight. His account of the part taken by the 2d Vermont Brigade, is that of an actor in or eyewitness of almost everything related; and of one who has been desirous to know...
