Look at the starry sky, marvel at the amazing view as a child, Breathe the reverence that fills us during observation, Moving with the rhythm of the stars before our eyes, Resonate with the flute of the universe with its sweet feeling of belonging, And perhaps even listen through the silence, as the whispering stars send us their invitation: Join us as we spread our wings and begin a magical journey into the heart of the universe. But how can we, who are drowning in the material world, will be able to hear the cry of nature, the word of the stars Have we lost our reverence Can we make contact with the sublime Shall we continue, in the name of logic, to reject our internal search, our spiritual inspiration, claiming that they are nothing but superstition Are we condemned to kneel to technological progress and call crazy those who wish to experience the excitement of the mind There are many ways offered to us today to get out of the chaos in which we live. Without doubt, astrology is one of the best ways, offering us wings that carry us beyond the world of the heavy and dark matter to the fresh air of the universe. The movement of the planets determines the rhythm of life on earth. It leads to the cycle of the seasons and to the phenomena associated with them: days and nights, seasons and solstices, ebb and flow, waxing and waning of the moon and so on. Each day the energies of the universe energies allow us to learn and become aware of the different aspects of our personality, we follow the...
