Rutgers University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Courting Justice: Ten New Jersey Cases That Shook the Nation, Paul L. Tractenberg, John B. Wefing, Richard H. Chused, Robert S. Olick, Paul W. Armstrong, Since 1947 a modernized New Jersey Supreme Court has played an important and controversial role in the state, nation, and world. Its decisions in cutting-edge cases have confronted society's toughest issues, reflecting changing social attitudes, modern life's complexities, and new technologies. Paul Tractenberg has selected ten of the court's landmark decisions between 1960 and 2011 to illustrate its extensive involvement in major public issues, and to assess its impact. Each case chapter is authored by a distinguished academic or professional expert, several of whom were deeply involved in the cases' litigation, enabling them to provide special insights. An overview chapter provides context for the court's distinctive activity. Many of the cases are so widely known that they have become part of the national conversation about law and policy. In the Karen Ann Quinlan decision, the court determined the right of privacy extends to refusing life-sustaining treatment. The Baby M case reined in surrogate parenting and focused on the child's best interests. In the Mount Laurel decision, the court sought to increase affordable housing for low- and moderate-income residents throughout the state. The Megan's Law case upheld legal regulation of sex offender community notification. A series of decisions known as "Abbott/Robinson" required the state to fund poor urban school districts at least on par with suburban districts. Other less well known cases still have great public importance. "Henningsen v. Bloomfield Motors" reshaped product liability and tort law to protect consumers injured by defective cars; "State v. Hunt" shielded privacy rights from unwarranted searches beyond federal standards; "Lehmann v. Toys 'R' Us" protected employees from sexual harassment and...
