Most of the crimes, whose recorded frequency and enormity stain the annals of our race, can be readily traced to the selfishness and moral corruption which belong to our lapsed nature. But there are some practices equally prevalent and pernicious, so absurd, so barbarous and brutal, as to outrage common sense, and shock every feeling of humanity. Yet even these enormities could not have prevailed at all, and cannot now continue to scourge the earth unless sustained and sanctioned by public approbation. We must therefore find the real cause of popular evils, however vile and degrading, in the corruption and perversity of popular opinion. This appears from the fact, that, in all parts of the world, there is the allowed and habitual commission of crimes, which are alike abhorrent to the dictates of reason and our natural feelings of justice and equity.
