Basic Books (AZ). Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 176 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.0in. x 0.6in. Ragnarok. Armageddon. Doomsday. Since the dawn of time, man has wondered how the world would end. In The Last Three Minutes, Paul Davies reveals the latest theories. It might end in a whimper, slowly scattering into the infinite void. Then again, it might be yanked back by its own gravity and end in a catastrophic Big Crunch. There are other, more frightening possibilities. We may be seconds away from doom at this very moment. Written in clear language that makes the cutting-edge science of quarks, neutrinos, wormholes, and metaverses accessible to the layman, The Last Three Minutes treats readers to a wide range of conjectures about the ultimate fate of the universe. Along the way, it takes the occasional divergent path to discuss some slightly less cataclysmic topics such as galactic colonization, what would happen if the Earth were struck by the comet Swift-Tuttle (a distinct possibility), the effects of falling in a black hole, and how to create a baby universe. Wonderfully morbid to the core, this is one of the most original science books to come along in years. It is always a pleasure to read this kind of meditation when it is carried out by a thinker of the breadth and awareness of Paul Davies. --New York Times Davies guides the reader on an imaginary journey into deep time, as the celestial clockwork winds out to infinity, bearing our descendants with it. --Laurence A. Marschall, The Sciences Davies has written a highly readable book that makes a commendable companion to The First Three Minutes. --Elizabeth Maggio, Washington Post This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
